Terms of use of the eGov-account

The eGov-account is the digital identity provided free of charge by the provincial administration for secure access to online services provided by the public administrations of South Tyrol.

The holder of the eGov-account is responsible for its use. If abusive or fraudulent conduct of the digital identity holder or third parties is detected, the account will be suspended immediately.

The eGov-account login credentials (username and password or Service Card and PIN) are strictly personal and should be kept with the utmost confidentiality and diligence, and also should not be given to third parties in any capacity (not even to the call center!). If you notice any unauthorized use of your eGov-account, you are required to immediately inform the call center at number free of charge: 800 816 836 (from abroad: +39 081 19737205) or email servicedesk@provincia.bz.it.

You may close your eGov-account at any time by contacting the call center.

Any changes regarding these terms of use will be communicated via email or cell phone, and are always visible by accessing the following website <https://iam.civis.bz.it/api/appurls/show?content=eGovTerms&lang=it>
